honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart The Year's Best Science Fiction: Seventeenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois,2000-08-12 In science fiction's early days stories often looked past 1984 to the year 2000 as the far unknowable future. Here now on the brink of the twenty first century the future remains as distant and as unknowable as ever and science fiction stories continue to explore it with delightful results. Collected in this anthology are such imaginative gems as The Wedding Album by David Marusek. In a high tech future the line between reality and simulation has grown thin and it's often hard to tell who's on what side. Everywhere by Geoff Ryman. Do the people who live in utopian conditions ever recognize them as such? Hatching the Phoenix by Frederik Pohl. One of science fiction's Grand Masters returns with a star crossing tale of the Heechee, the enigmatic vanished aliens whose discarded technology guides mankind through the future. A Hero of the Empire by Robert Silverberg. Showing that the past is as much a province of the imagination as the future, this novelette returns to an alternate history when the Roman Empire never fell to show us just how the course of history can be altered. The twenty seven stories in this collection imaginatively take us to nearby planets and distant futures into the past and into universes no larger than a grain of sand. Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents. Supplementing the stories are the editor's insightful summation of the year's events and a lengthy list of honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart **The Year's Best Science Fiction: Thirty-Fifth Annual Collection** Gardner Dozois,2018-07-03

Presents some of the best science fiction short stories written in 2017 *The Year's Best Science Fiction*,2003 Liberty: 1784 Robert Conroy,2014-03-04 In 1781 George Washington's attempt to trap the British under Cornwallis at Yorktown ends catastrophically when the French fleet is destroyed in the Battle of the Capes. The revolution collapses and the British begin a bloody reign of terror. A group of rebels flees westward and sets up a colony near what is now Chicago. They call it Liberty. The British, looking to finish what they started, send a very large force under Burgoyne to destroy them. Burgoyne is desperate for redemption and the Americans are equally desperate to survive. Had the Battle of the Capes gone differently, a changed darker New World would have been forced into existence. But even under those dire circumstances, Liberty may still find a way.
