Raising Resilient Children Gavin McCormack,2025-07-29 A life changing 7 step program for parents who are struggling to help their kids navigate today s complex world written by one of Australia s most influential teachers As school refusal mental health struggles and social challenges in the playground continue to rise trailblazing teacher Gavin McCormack is redefining what it means to receive a good education They say it takes a village to raise a child Gavin s transformative methods can be used by parents carers and educators alike He highlights the power of modelling positive behaviour and prioritising essential life skills over academic scores helping children build resilience develop emotional intelligence and thrive beyond traditional measures of success Drawing on the latest neuroscience of learning and years of teaching experience in mainstream and Montessori schools he offers practical strategies that will help children navigate life s challenges learn with passion and grow into capable confident and compassionate human beings Gavin believes when children are given independence the right tools and the encouragement to build on their strengths their potential is limitless

Raising Resilient Kids in a Challenging World Reham Sadek,2023-12-11 Parenting book

Raising Resilient Children with a Borderline or Narcissistic Parent Margalis Fjelstad,Jean McBride,2020-11-03 Being partnered with a narcissist or borderline personality can be hard enough but learning how to shield children from the fallout is paramount Here the authors show readers how to manage parenting when a narcissistic or borderline partner is part of the equation Life in a narcissistic family system is at best challenging and too often filled with chaos isolation emotional outbursts and rigid controlling behaviors It is too often devoid of peace and emotional safety In the worst outcomes children in these families grow up with low self worth issues with trust and belonging and a lack of self compassion They are at significant risk of carrying the cycle forward and having poor adult relationships This book offers a way to intervene and disrupt the cycle of negative outcomes for children Written by two family therapists who bring a combined total of sixty years of clinical practice with individuals and families the book pulls no punches giving clear headed advice easy to follow actions to help children and an abundance of teaching examples Instead of the doom and gloom scenarios often presented about life with a narcissist or borderline this book provides a much more positive outlook and most importantly it offers hope and a path to an entirely different outcome for the family members Supported by current research in neuroscience mindfulness and parenting information the book focuses on teaching resilience and self compassion to raise emotionally healthy children even in a narcissistic family system It starts by helping parents get a clear understanding of what they face with a narcissistic or borderline partner There is no room here for denial but there are also many options to explore It explains how and why the narcissistic family system functions so poorly for raising healthy children and pinpoints the deficits while providing information on how to intervene more effectively for the benefit of the children Using their years of experience the authors present ideas for staying together as well as knowing when to leave the relationship and how best to do that Emphasis throughout the book is on supporting and strengthening the reader with encouragement concrete ideas skills and compassionate understanding

Raising Resilient Children Robert Brooks, Sam Goldstein, 2002-09-18 Discusses the importance of fostering the qualities of resilience in children and offers specific ideas and strategies designed to help parents raise strong hopeful optimistic children

Resilient Kids Kathy Koch PhD, 2022-08-02 Children need to believe their future is bright The more disappointments they don't recover well from the less likely they are to dream When they do not process challenging experiences well it can lead to defeat rather than encourage them to grow and mature Far too many children don't grasp their strengths and as a result do not believe they can overcome negative encounters Apathy sets in Discouragement persists Arguments rage Mental health suffers Children need to be resilient and when they develop this ability and make wise choices it becomes part of their character Furthermore they need parents who help them to learn from negative experiences and who allow them a certain measure of struggle In Resilient Kids moms and dads will learn the power and purpose of resilience and how to parent so as to make it more likely their children will utilize this character quality
