How Stories Change Us Elaine Reese, 2024-10-04 In How Stories Change Us Elaine Reese integrates the latest scientific research on stories from fiction books TV shows and movies videogames with stories from real life our personal experiences including on social media across the lifespan The book offers an authoritative yet accessible overview of the new interdisciplinary science of stories told by a developmental psychologist and autobiographical memory expert with over thirty years of experience conducting research on stories Reese synthesizes cutting edge research for an interdisciplinary audience offers practical tips for parents teachers librarians and policymakers and she advocates for a more integrated science of stories to allow us to better choose the stories we consume and tell Theorising Modern Marketing in a Socially Digital Global Community ELAINE L. RITCH., 2025 This book adopts a unique perspective in critically evaluating new perspectives of marketing that fall within ethical constructs including EDI equality diversity and inclusivity gendered implications and perspectives sustainability people and planet and intersections with consumer culture Marketing is often criticised as being commercially focused profit over people This book suggest that marketers could should include consideration for ethical imp

Global Literary Studies Diana Roig-Sanz, Neus Rotger, 2022-12-05 While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach Specifically it responds to a double demand the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research global translation flows and translation policies the post 1989 novel as a global form global literary environments and a global perspective on film and cinema history Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in various areas of research the volume is structured around five target concepts space scale time connectivity and agency We also take gender and LGBTQ perspectives as well as a digital approach The Persephone Myth in Young Adult Fiction Cristina Salcedo González, 2024-12-12 Investigating the widespread but understudied presence of the Persephone myth within 21st century young adult literature Cristina Salcedo González analyses six young adult novels which incorporate a reworking of this ancient Greek myth Through the identification of mythic themes mythemes and patterns within these novels González shows that these works evoke the female life cycle and develop current perceptions of the female maturational experience As a result Salcedo González makes an important contribution in establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature in the world of classical reception These novels all written by women also inflect or interpret the myth in ways influenced by their contemporary contexts specifically the impact of the novels target readership on the aspects of the myth that are either emphasised e.g Persephone's descent into the underworld her existence there and her re ascent or de emphasised e g the mourning and wanderings of Demeter This book makes original methodological contributions through its innovative dual perspective of myth criticism and classical reception to our understanding of the academically neglected genre of young adult literature and the reception of the myth of Persephone As a result Salcedo Gonz lez significantly contributes to establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature within the realm of classical reception
