Making Open Development Inclusive Matthew L. Smith, Ruhiya Kristine Seward, 2020-08-25 Drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyses of how open development has played out in practice A decade ago a significant trend toward openness emerged in international development Open development can describe initiatives as disparate as open government open health data open science open education and open innovation The theory was that open systems related to data science and innovation would enable more inclusive processes of human development This volume drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyzes how open development has played out in practice

Applying Critical Mathematics Education, 2021-07-05 There is no shortage of urgent complex problems that mathematics education can and should engage with Pandemics forest fires pollution Black Lives Matter protests and fake news all involve mathematics are matters of life and death have a clear political dimension and are interdisciplinary in nature They demand a critical approach The authors in this volume showcase new insights teaching ideas and new and unique ways of applying critical mathematics education in areas as diverse as climate change obesity decolonisation and ethnomathematics This book demonstrates that there is plenty to be done with critical mathematics education Contributors are Annica Andersson Tonya Gau Bartell Richard Barwell Lisa Lunney Borden Sunghwan Byun Anna Chronaki Brian Greer Jennifer Hall Victoria Hand Kjellrun Hiis Hauge Beth Herbel Eisenmann Rune Herheim Courtney Koestler Kate le Roux Swapna Mukhopadhyay Aldo Parra Anita Rampal Sheena Rughubar Reddy Toril Eskeland Rangnes Ulrika Ryan Lisa Steffensen Paola Valero and David Wagner Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities Cape Town and the Cape Peninsula Post 1806 Teresa Strauss, 1989 Halvorsen: Sharing Knowledge, Transforming Societi, 2023-01-10 In June 2016 the Norwegian Programme for Capacity Development in Higher Education and Research for Development Norhed hosted a conference on the theme of knowledge for development in an attempt to shift the focus of the programme towards its academic content This book follows up on that event The conference highlighted the usefulness of presenting the value of Norhed s different projects to the world showing how they improve knowledge and expand access to it through co operation A wish for more meta knowledge was also expressed and this gives rise to the following questions Is this way of co operating contributing to the growth of independent post colonial knowledge production in the South based on analyses of local data and experiences in ways that are relevant to our shared future Does the growth of academic independence as well as greater equality and the ability to develop theories different to those imposed by the better off parts of the world give rise to deeper understandings and better explanations Does it at least spread the ability to translate existing methodologies in ways that add meaning to observations of local context and data and thus enhance the relevance and influence of the academic profession locally and internationally This book in its varied contributions does not provide definite answers to these questions but it does show that Norhed is a step in the right direction Norhed is an attempt to fund collaboration within and between higher education institutions We know that both the uniqueness of this programme and ideas of how to better utilise the learning and experience emerging from it call for more elaboration and broader dissemination before we can offer
