A Legacy of Exploitation Susan Dianne Brophy,2022-05-15 It is unlikely that buyers of the Hudson s Bay Company s iconic multistripe point blanket these days reflect on the historically exploitative relationship between the company and Indigenous producers This critical re evaluation of the company s first planned settlement at Red River uncovers that history As a settler colonialist project par excellence the Red River Colony was designed to undercut Indigenous peoples troublesome autonomy and better control their labour Susan Dianne Brophy upends standard historical portrayals by foregrounding Indigenous peoples autonomy as a driving force of change A Legacy of Exploitation offers a comprehensive account of legal economic and geopolitical relations to show how autonomy can become distorted as complicity in processes of dispossession Ultimately this book challenges enduring yet misleading national fantasies about Canada as a nation of bold adventurers The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern,2023 This book is a wide ranging reference work covering the more than 550 Indigenous languages of Australia The chapters in the book explore typology and classification linguistic structures sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community The final part offers sketches of a selection of languages sub groups and families More Than a Feeling Adam J.

Ramey,Jonathan D. Klingler,Gary E. Hollibaugh,2017-04-27 Whatever you think about the widening divide between Democrats and Republicans ideological differences do not explain why politicians from the same parties who share the same goals and policy preferences often argue fiercely about how best to attain them This perplexing misalignment suggests that we are missing an important piece of the puzzle Political scientists have increasingly drawn on the relationship between voters personalities and political orientation but there has been little empirically grounded research looking at how legislators personalities influence their performance on Capitol Hill With More Than a Feeling Adam J Ramey Jonathan D Klingler and Gary E Hollibaugh Jr have developed an innovative framework incorporating what are known as the Big Five dimensions of personality openness to experience conscientiousness extraversion agreeableness and neuroticism to improve our understanding of political behavior among members of Congress To determine how strongly individuals display these traits the authors identified correlates across a wealth of data including speeches campaign contributions and expenditures committee involvement willingness to filibuster and even Twitter feeds They then show how we might expect to see the influence of these traits across all aspects of Congress members political behavior from the type and quantity of legislation they sponsor and their style of communication to whether they decide to run again or seek a higher office They also argue convincingly that the types of personalities that have come to dominate Capitol Hill in recent years may be contributing to a lot of the gridlock and frustration plaguing the American political system Intellectual Property Law in Africa Caroline B.

Ncube,2023-06-29 Examining the harmonisation of Intellectual Property policy law and administration in Africa this book evaluates the effectiveness of efforts to establish continental Intellectual Property institutions and frameworks It also considers sub regional initiatives led by the regional economic communities and the regional Intellectual Property organisations focusing on relevant protocols and agreements that address Intellectual Property as well as the implementing institutions The book assesses the progress of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of African states It argues that that harmonisation initiatives need to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the developmental goals of African states and advocates for due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in Intellectual Property law and its harmonisation in Africa Exhibitions for Social Justice Elena Gonzales,2019-07-17 Exhibitions for Social Justice
