Harrington, 2012-06-24 The Berlin blockade brought former allies to the brink of war Britain France the United States and the Soviet Union defeated and began their occupation of Germany in 1945 and within a few years the Soviets and their Western partners were jockeying for control of their former foe Attempting to thwart the Allied powers plans to create a unified West German government the Soviets blocked rail and road access to the western sectors of Berlin in June 1948 With no other means of delivering food and supplies to the German people under their protection the Allies organized the Berlin airlift In Berlin on the Brink The Blockade the Airlift and the Cold War Daniel F Harrington examines the Berlin question from its origin in wartime plans for the occupation of Germany through the Paris Council of Foreign Ministers meeting in 1949 Harrington draws on previously untapped archival sources to challenge standard accounts of the postwar division of Germany the origins of the blockade the original purpose of the airlift and the leadership of President Harry S Truman While thoroughly examining four power diplomacy Harrington demonstrates how the ingenuity and hard work of the people at the bottom pilots mechanics and Berliners were more vital to the airlift s success than decisions from the top Harrington also explores the effects of the crisis on the 1948 presidential election and on debates about the custody and use of atomic weapons Berlin on the Brink is a fresh comprehensive analysis that reshapes our understanding of a critical event of cold war history      The English-language Press Networks of East Asia, 1918-1945 Peter O'Connor, 2010-09-01 This study is the first to assess the combined significance of the English language newspapers of China Japan and Korea in the period 1918 45 It not only frames the English language press networks in the international media history of East Asia but also relates them to media developments in the British world linking Fleet Street to the Empire and Dominions and to the rise of the United States as a broker of international opinion on and in the Asia Pacific The English language newspapers occupied a narrow but significant segment of the public sphere in East Asia in the inter war years As forums of opinion on Japanese Chinese and Western interests in East Asia they also served as vehicles of propaganda particularly during the crisis ridden 1930s and the Pacific War With this examination of the media affiliations editorial line and access to official bodies in East Asia and the West of most of the English language newspapers published in East Asia in the period under review the author demonstrates that these publications formed distinct networks in terms of the editorial positions they took vis a vis the key issues of the day especially Japan s imperial project in East Asia      Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain.
