Pakistans Development Social Private Incentives:

Pakistan's Development Gustav F. Papanek, 2024-10-04 In the 1950s Pakistan was generally considered to be a country that would remain among the poorest in the world but economic development in the decade to follow exceeded all expectations Gustav Papanek in the first thorough analysis of this achievement shows how Pakistan partly by design and partly by accident arrived at a successful blend of private initiative and government intervention in the economy This book which includes the only comprehensive industrial survey of an underdeveloped country sheds considerable light on the problems facing nations in similar circumstances Pakistan's Development ,1970 Pakistan's Development Edgar Leroy Morphet, 1967 Review of Pakistan's Development Wayne Ayres Wilcox, 1968 Gustav Papanek one of the early workers in Pakistan s reputedly hopeless vineyard has watched and participated in the country s growth for more than a decade As Director of Harvard s Development Advisory Service he uses this book to simultaneously describe Pakistan s experience to use the lessons of this experience to question many concepts in the development literature and to find in Pakistan s case ample evidence to destroy some of the shibboleths about traditional societies and traditional man As Edward Mason cautions in the foreword the arguments are made with considerable vigor as is appropriate to an author who has had something to do with the successes he describes Author Review of 'Pakistan's Development: Social Goals and Private Incentives, ' ,1968 Gustav Papanek one of the early workers in Pakistan s reputedly hopeless vineyard has watched and participated in the country s growth for more than a decade As Director of Harvard s Development Advisory Service he uses this book to simultaneously describe Pakistan s experience to use the lessons of this experience to question many concepts in the development literature and to find in Pakistan s case ample evidence to destroy some of the shibboleths about traditional societies and traditional man As Edward Mason cautions in the foreword the arguments are made with considerable vigor as is appropriate to an author who has had something to do with the successes he describes Author Pakistan - the Political Economy of Growth, Stagnation and the State, 1951-2009 Matthew McCartney, 2011-06-07 This book provides a comprehensive reassessment of the development of the economy of Pakistan from independence to the present It argues that the factors which bring about economic development in countries with high levels of deprivation are best understood by considering changing overall approaches where shifts in approaches do not always coincide with changes in political regimes Contemporary Pakistan Veena Kukreja, 2003-02-24 Veena Kukreja provides a rare reasoned analysis of the political processes at work in contemporary Pakistan and an objective understanding of the problems and crises confronting the country The author points out that for 25 out of the 53 years of its existence the military has been the arbiter of Pakistan s destiny The military she maintains regards its dominance of Pakistani politics not only as a right but as a duty As a result state security has taken precedence over the need to create participatory political processes and institutions The book points out that the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001 and the resulting US offensive in Afghanistan has put the military regime in Islamabad in a tight spot Caught between unyielding ulemas a faltering economy and American pressure to demolish militant networks in Pakistan these recent developments combined with the dangerous cleavage within Pakistani society could well push that country into another bout of instability and even anarchy The situation is made more complex by the nexus between terrorism and drugs The Post-Colonial States of South Asia NA NA,2016-09-27 The chapters in this volume analyse issues relating to political governance national identity economic development and regional security that have preoccupied the states of South Asia in the fifty years following independence India has been faced with the challenge of developing effective democratic structures in the world s most diverse and populous society It confronts tensions in its efforts to carry out economic reforms in a competitive resource scarce context and to maintain its commitment to secularism in the face of the growing influence of Hindu nationalism The role of the military and of religion have complicated the task of stabilising democratic structures and socio economic development in Pakistan and Bangladesh Sri Lanka s political problems have escalated due to the failures of its leadership unsuccessful constitutional experiments and unresolved ethnic differences The transition of Nepal from a centralised monarchy to a participatory political system has generated stresses in its traditional social relations and group rankings The essays by an international groups of scholars explore these themes with a view to highlighting the complex processes of political change and development that are underway in the South Asian states

Entrepreneurship in the Third World Zafar Altaf,2023-06-09 First Published in 1988 Entrepreneurship in the Third World argues that the substantial theoretical literature on entrepreneurship and small business development really relates to the developed world only and is not applicable to the developing world It argues that because of the very different circumstances indeed which apply in the developing world for example the less developed banking system or the expectation that breadwinners provide for extended families new theories of entrepreneurship and small business development need to be generated for the developing world It goes on to put forward theories here analysing and presenting a substantial body of original data It discusses policies which third world countries have adopted to assist small business growth and concludes by suggesting in the light of the research findings and the theories put forward how these might be improved This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Pakistani economics South Asian economics and business economics The Post-Colonial States of South Asia Amita Shastri,A. Jeyaratnam Wilson,2013-01-11 This text discusses the principal political and constitutional questions that have arisen in the states of Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka following fifty years of independence In Sri Lanka the pressing problems have been around the inter ethnic civil war experiments with constitutional designs widespread prevalence of corruption and the recrudescence of Buddhist militancy In India it has been corruption Hindu nationalism and general political instability In Bangladesh and Pakistan it has been the role of the military the state and religion A general theme is an analysis of the malaise that is prevalent and how and why this was inherited despite the colonial legacy of parliamentary democracy the steel framework of a trained bureaucracy the independence of the judiciary and the rule of law Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh, 2018-10-15 Argues that the decline of Pakistan is deeply entrenched with roots in its original national foundations Pakistan's Development Gustav F. Papanek, 1967 Pacific Affairs , 1968 Includes book reviews and bibliographies Pakistan Administrative Staff College Journal , 1970 The Management of Pakistan's Economy, 1947-82 Viqar Ahmed, Rashid Amjad, 1984 The first volume in a series on Pakistan's economy this book investigates and analyzes the factors responsible for the economic policies followed in Pakistan from 1947 to 1982 These policies the authors argue are largely responsible for the economic situation of Pakistan today Pakistan, Its Resources and Development Akhtar Husain Siddiqi, 1979 Pakistan Horizon , 1972 Includes chronology of Pakistan current events Pakistan, Fifty Years of Independence: Independence and beyond: the fifty years, 1947-97 Verinder Grover, Ranjana Arora, 1997 Pakistan Shahid Javed Burki, 1986 Journal of Law and Society , 1985
