readers opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture Based on three years of original research 2019 2021 including a quantitative survey with readers interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make choosing connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co exist The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness theorist and a popular one at that Already fluent in internet fakery irony and outrage she's not exactly shocked by the revelation Actually she's relieved he was always a little distant and she plots to end their floundering relationship while on a trip to the Women's March in DC But this is only the first in a series of bizarre twists that expose a world whose truths are shaped by online lies Suddenly left with no reason to stay in New York and increasingly alienated from her friends and colleagues our unnamed narrator flees to Berlin embarking on her own cycles of manipulation in the deceptive spaces of her daily life from dating apps to expat meetups open plan offices to bureaucratic waiting rooms She begins to think she can't trust anyone shouldn't the feeling be mutual Narrated with seductive confidence and subversive wit Fake Accounts challenges the way current conversations about the self and community delusions and gaslighting and fiction and reality play out in the internet age
