Gender and Care with Young Children

B. Denise Hodgins,2019-04-08 This book is an exploration of how children educators and things become implicated in gendered caring practices Drawing on a collaborative research study with early childhood educators and young children the author examines what an engagement with human and non human relationality does to complicate conversations about gender and care By employing a feminist material analysis of early childhood education this book rethinks dominant Euro Western individualist pedagogies in order to reposition them within a relationality framework The analysis illuminates the political and ethical embeddedness of early childhood education and the understanding that gendering and caring emerge with in a complex web of many relations

Signal,2014 Research and Teaching in a Pandemic World Basil Cahusac de Caux,Lynette

Pretorius,Luke Macaulay,2023-01-01 This book adopts collaborative autoethnography as its methodology and presents the collective witnessing of experiences of the COVID 19 pandemic within the higher education sector Through the presentation of staff and student experiences and what was learnt from them the authors examine the global phenomenon that is the COVID 19 pandemic through the purposeful exploration of their own experiences This book presents an overall argument about the state of higher education in the middle of the pandemic and highlights academic issues and region specific challenges The reflections presented in this book offer insights for other staff and students as well as academic policy makers regarding the pandemic experiences of those within academia It also offers practical suggestions as to how we as a global community can move forward post pandemic
