When you play with things that do not belong on earth you are courting with disaster At a lab on the outskirts of Madison Wisconsin Brian accidentally creates a viral mix of overwhelming capacity Sent to Stockholm to a conference so the agency can play with it further he unknowingly spreads it to all the delegates On live television till the reporters themselves succumb civilization is shown falling into a spiral of fear and brutality When the power grids fail the absolute chaos is hidden except that which is outside your own door Finally all hope is gone and the earth falls silent Yet a few survive This story follows a small group in the southern hemisphere who struggle to grasp the reality of the new world they were unwillingly thrust into With no power no law no comfort and no hope they forge out an existence and discover the comfort in relying on others to survive while experiencing every emotion known to man along the way The choices we make and how to deal with fear loss triumph and peace all while dealing with your own mortality This story explores the reality of a sudden withdrawal of modern convenience the emotions that ensue and how a group can plan a future where the way of life of their descendants will undoubtedly regress till all modern knowledge is lost or is that the case It is both a sobering jolt to the futility of the way we live and heartwarming in the revealing of the need for community in the most dire of circumstances

has a place in this harsh reality and these stories stir adventure and emotion at a frantic clip throughout Zombie fiction fans will be thrilled Library Journal Praise for the Black Tide Rising Series Not only has Ringo found a mostly unexplored corner of the zombie landscape he's using the zombie frame to tackle a broader theme the collapse and rebirth of civilization The zombie scenes are exciting sure but it's the human story that keeps us involved A fine series Booklist Flowers of Time Mark Payne, 2020-10-27 For all of its current popularity contemporary apocalyptic fiction novels set during or after events that devastate the world as we know it is part of a long tradition that includes the Biblical story of Noah the epic of Gilgamesh and the Works and Days of the ancient Greek poet Hesiod as well as the vast array of modern examples In this short essayistic book the author focuses on twentieth and twenty first century fiction in which new forms of life emerge from catastrophe how the survivors adapt to the altered conditions of existence and the various ways in which the past asserts its claims on them both the immediate past of the world that was lost and the deep past of prehistory and imagination that returns with this loss In Payne's view post apocalyptic fiction is political theory in fictional form Instead of producing arguments in favor of a particular form of life it shows what it would be like to live that life In a world in which there is no more capitalism and no more nation state characters have to relearn basic survival skills and return to earlier forms of social life They acquire new capabilities which bring new satisfactions they could not have anticipated in the world that is gone In the post apocalyptic world they disentangle themselves from old ways of thinking and their misconceptions of human happiness In this way Payne argues post apocalyptic fiction is the pastoral of our time The individualism and small scale social relations of post apocalyptic fiction are not naive but instead the necessary ground for choosing the freedoms and capabilities readers would want to see preserved in any future collective that might emerge from them The Rescue
