González,2024-12-12 Investigating the widespread but understudied presence of the Persephone myth within 21st century young adult literature Cristina Salcedo Gonz lez analyses six young adult novels which incorporate a reworking of this ancient Greek myth Through the identification of mythic themes mythemes and patterns within these novels Gonz lez shows that these works evoke the female life cycle and develop current perceptions of the female maturational experience As a result Salcedo Gonz lez makes an important contribution in establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature in the world of classical reception These novels all written by women also inflect or interpret the myth in ways influenced by their contemporary contexts specifically the impact of the novels target readership on the aspects of the myth that are either emphasised e g Persephone s descent into the underworld her existence there and her re ascent or de emphasised e g the mourning and wanderings of Demeter This book makes original methodological contributions through its innovative dual perspective of myth criticism and classical reception to our understanding of the academically neglected genre of young adult literature and the reception of the myth of Persephone As a result Salcedo Gonz lez significantly contributes to establishing the cultural significance of young adult literature within the realm of classical reception

The Digital Future of English Simone Murray, 2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book s imminent demise presented a simplistic either or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline s founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology s impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future
