Here's how it works: For column A, find the word corresponding to the first letter of your name and plug it into the "A" slot in our patented post-apocalypse generator. Then do the same for the second letter and column B, and so on. Voila. Now you know what happens after the end of the world! (Or, at least, what you should write about it.)

Novel Post Apocalyptic Story:

The Post-Apocalyptic Novel in the Twenty-First Century H. Hicks, 2016-04-08 Since the beginning of the twenty first century major Anglophone authors have flocked to a literary form once considered lowbrow genre fiction the post apocalyptic novel Calling on her broad knowledge of the history of apocalyptic literature Hicks examines the most influential post apocalyptic novels written since the beginning of the new millennium including works by Margaret Atwood David Mitchell Cormac McCarthy Jeanette Winterson Colson Whitehead and Paolo Bacigalupi Situating her careful readings in relationship to the scholarship of a wide range of historians theorists and literary critics she argues that these texts use the post apocalyptic form to reevaluate modernity in the context of the new century's political economic and ecological challenges In the immediate wake of disaster the characters in these novels desperately scavenge the scraps of the modern world But what happens to modernity beyond these first moments of salvage In a period when postmodernism no longer defines cultural production Hicks convincingly demonstrates that these writers employ conventions of post apocalyptic genre fiction to reengage with key features of modernity from historical thinking and the institution of nationhood to rationality and the practices of literacy itself Reminders of the American Century Brent Ryan Bellamy, 2021-03-08 A literary scholar examines what post apocalyptic fiction can tell us about American anxiety as a nation in decline

Apocalyptic Fiction Andrew Tate, 2017-01-26 Visions of post apocalyptic worlds have proved to be irresistible for many 21st century writers from literary novelists to fantasy and young adult writers Exploring a wide range of texts from the works of Margaret Atwood Cormac McCarthy Tom Perrotta and Emily St John Mandel to young adult novels such as Suzanne Collins's The Hunger Games series this is the first critical introduction to contemporary apocalyptic fiction Exploring the cultural and political contexts of these writings and their echoes in popular media Apocalyptic Fiction also examines how contemporary apocalyptic texts look back to earlier writings by the likes of Mary Shelley H G Wells and J G Ballard Apocalyptic Fiction includes an annotated guide to secondary readings making this an essential guide for students of contemporary fiction at all levels

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability

Contemporary Women's Post-Apocalyptic Fiction Susan Watkins, 2020-02-29 This book examines how contemporary women novelists have successfully transformed and rewritten the conventions of post apocalyptic fiction Since the dawn of the new millennium there has been an outpouring of writing that depicts the end of the world as we know it and women writers are no exception to this trend However the book argues that their fiction is distinctive Contemporary women's work in this genre avoids conservatism a nostalgic mourning for the past and the focus on restoring what has been lost aspects key to much male authored apocalyptic fiction Instead contemporary women writers show readers the ways in which patriarchy and neo colonialism are intrinsically implicated in the disasters they envision and offer qualified hope for a new beginning for society culture and literature after an imagined apocalyptic event Exploring science nature and matter the posthuman body the maternal imaginary time narrative and history literature and the word and the post secular the book covers a wide variety of writers and addresses issues of nationality race and ethnicity as well as gender and sexuality

New Perspectives on Dystopian Fiction in Literature and Other Media Saija Isomaa, Jyrki Korpua, Jouni Teittinen, 2020-08-27 This collection of essays examines various forms of dystopian fiction in literature television and digital games It frames the timely trend of dystopian fiction as a thematic field that accommodates several genres from societal dystopia to apocalyptic narratives and climate fiction many of them examining the hazards of science and technology to human societies and the ecosystem These are genres of the Anthropocene par excellence capturing the dilemmas of the human condition in the current increasingly precarious epoch The essays offer new interpretations of classical and contemporary works including the canonised prose of Orwell Atwood and Cormac McCarthy modern pop culture classics like Battlestar Galactica Fallout and Hunger Games and the work of Johanna Sinisalo a pioneer of Finnish speculative fiction From Thomas Pynchon to Watership Down the volume's multifaceted approach offers fresh perspectives to those already familiar with existing research but it is no less accessible for newcomers to the ever expanding field of dystopian studies

American Cities in Post-Apocalyptic Science Fiction Robert Yeates, 2021-11-15 Visions of the American city in post apocalyptic ruin permeate literary and popular fiction across print visual audio and digital media American Cities in Post Apocalyptic Science Fiction explores the prevalence of these representations in American culture drawing from a wide range of primary and critical works from the early twentieth century to today Beginning with science fiction in literary magazines before taking in radio dramas film video games and expansive transmedia franchises Robert Yeates argues that post apocalyptic representations of the American city are uniquely suited for explorations of contemporary urban issues Examining how the post apocalyptic American city has been repeatedly adapted and repurposed to new and developing media over the last century this book reveals that the content and form of such texts work together to create vivid and immersive fictional spaces in ways that would otherwise not be possible

Chapters present media specific analyses of these texts situating them within their historical contexts and the broader history of representations of urban ruins in American fiction Original in its scope and cross media approach American Cities in Post Apocalyptic Science Fiction both illuminates little studied texts and provides provocative new readings of familiar works such as Blade Runner and The Walking Dead placing them within the larger historical context of imaginings of the American city in ruins

The Contemporary Post-Apocalyptic Novel Diletta De Cristofaro, 2019-12-26 Traditional apocalyptic texts concern the advent of a better world at the end of history that will make sense of everything that happened before But what is at stake in the contemporary shift to apocalyptic narratives in which the utopian end of time is removed The Contemporary Post Apocalyptic Novel offers an innovative critical model for our cultural obsession with the end by focussing on the significance of time in the 21st century post apocalyptic novel and challenging traditional apocalyptic logic Once confined to the genre of science fiction the increasing popularity of end of the world narratives has caused apocalyptic writing to feature in the work of some of contemporary literature s most well known fiction writers Considering novels by Will Self Cormac McCarthy David Mitchell Emily St John Mandel Jeanette Winterson and others Diletta De Cristofaro frames the contemporary apocalyptic imagination as a critique of modernity s apocalyptic conception of time and history Interdisciplinary in scope the book historicises apocalyptic beliefs by exploring how relentlessly they have shaped the modern world

Challenging Anthropocentrism in Eco-Science Fiction Novels Fatma Gamze Erkan, 2024-01-03 This book explores the relationship between humanity and nature while challenging the notion that anthropocentric behaviour causes the environmental catastrophes depicted in the four selected British eco science fiction novels These novels are John Christopher s The Death of Grass 1956 J G Ballard s The Drought 1965 Brian Aldiss s Earthworks 1965 and John Brunner s The Sheep Look Up 1972 all of which fictionalise the fact that the consequences of environmental problems can be diverse but equally serious This book examines how even the smallest damage caused by human beings to the environment negatively affects them other living beings and the ecosystem they need to live and flourish In conjunction with these the factors and conditions that push characters in the novels to ignore and harm the environment are also scrutinised While examining how and why the environmental problems in the novels have arisen it is evaluated whether the authors propose solutions to these problems and if so what they are

Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer, 2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero

Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer's analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment

A New Dawn D. B. Daglish, 2015-01-25 When you play with things that do not belong on earth you are courting with disaster At a lab on the outskirts of Madison Wisconsin Brian accidentally creates a viral mix of overwhelming capacity Sent to Stockholm to a conference so the agency can play with it further he unknowingly spreads it to all the delegates On live television till the reporters themselves succumb civilization is shown falling into a spiral of fear and brutality When the power grids fail the absolute chaos is hidden except that which is outside your own door Finally all hope is gone and the earth falls silent Yet a few survive This story follows a small group in the southern hemisphere who struggle to grasp the reality of the new world they were unwillingly thrust into With no power no law no comfort and no hope they forge out an existence and discover the comfort in relying on others to survive while experiencing every emotion known to man along the way The choices we make and how to deal with fear loss triumph and peace all while dealing with your own mortality This story explores the reality of a sudden withdrawal of modern convenience the emotions that ensue and how a group can plan a future where the way of life of their descendants will undoubtedly regress till all modern knowledge is lost or is that the case It is both a sobering jolt to the futility of the way we live and heartwarming in the revealing of the need for community in the most dire of circumstances
