The Favorites Mary Yukari Waters, 2014-04-19

From an award winning author whose debut story collection received unprecedented praise comes an elegant novel about mothers and daughters secrets and silences and familial bonds in a culture where custom dictates behavior In her exquisite first novel Mary Yukari Waters explores the complex relationships among three generations of women bound by a painful family history Fourteen year old Sarah Rexford half Japanese and half American feels like an outsider when she visits her family in Japan She quickly learns that in traditional Kyoto personal boundaries are firmly drawn and actions are not always what they appear In the midst of her acculturation Sarah learns of a family secret During World War II her grandmother was forced to give up one of her daughters for adoption The child was adopted by the grandmother s sister in law and the siblings were brought up as cousins growing up on the same lane where both the biological and adoptive mother lived Even into the present the arrangement is never discussed But as Sarah learns its presence looms over the two houses In this carefully articulated world where every gesture and look has meaning Sarah must learn the rules by which her mother aunts and grandmother live Delicately balancing drama and restraint as only few writers can Waters captures these women their deep passions and tumultuous histories in this tender and moving novel about the power beauty and importance of mother daughter relationships
