Children need to believe their future is bright. The more disappointments they don't recover well from, the less likely they are to dream. When they do not process challenging experiences well, it can lead to defeat rather than encourage them to grow and mature. Far too many children don't grasp their strengths and, as a result, do not believe they can overcome negative encounters. Apathy sets in. Discouragement persists. Arguments rage. Mental health suffers. Children need to be resilient and, when they develop this ability and make wise choices, it becomes part of their character. Furthermore, they need parents who help them to learn from negative experiences and who allow them a certain measure of struggle. In Resilient Kids, moms and dads will learn the power and purpose of resilience and how to parent so as to make it more likely their children will utilize this character quality. Raising Resilient Kids Sharon Witt, 2018-10. Nurturing Resilience in Our Children Robert B. Brooks, Sam Goldstein, 2002-09-18. In their critically acclaimed parenting bestseller Raising Resilient Children, Drs. Brooks and Goldstein introduced readers to their breakthrough parenting model. In this important Q & A follow-up book, they expand upon their theory of resilience with reasonable, jargon-free answers to dozens of questions. toughLOVE Lisa Stiepock, 2016-10-18. From toughLOVE, a unique online community balanced practical advice for parents of school-age children from child psychology experts on how to handle everything from picky eating to media consumption to the homework wars. The challenges of parenting evolve as the world becomes more complex. How do we set limits on what our children are exposed to without sheltering them too much? How do we raise them to be resilient, empathetic, upstanding adults? How do we get them to put down their smartphones and have a conversation with us? toughLOVE offers advice from professors at Ivy League medical schools, New York Times bestselling authors, and top parenting coaches who have appeared on the Today show, Good Morning America, The Oprah Winfrey Show, CBS Evening News, 20/20, CNN World News Tonight, and NPR. They address all sorts of issues from the timeless picky eating, homework battles, how to have "The Talk" to the timely social media safety feelings of entitlement, ways to balance schedules. Their breadth of clinical expertise and years of coaching real families will help parents build a commonsense framework for approaching all kinds of dilemmas in a way that reflects their personal values and preferred parenting styles. Combining a high level of nurture with an emphasis on boundaries and structure, toughLOVE shows parents how to help their kids become capable, responsible, and productive from the first day of kindergarten through the first day of college and beyond. Parenting Without Power Struggles Susan Stiffelman, 2012-03-15.
