Pageants and Processions Herman C. Du Toit, 2009 Nowadays pageants often take the form of parades of effervescent young women competing for popular recognition in hyped up media events However these so-called beauty pageants are a mere pastiche of the elaborate historical parades of the medieval period that took significant social religious or civic events and their protagonists as subjects Pageants were historically characterized by resplendent costuming and elaborate processions that were often given to much pomp and ceremony Pageantry has formed an important part of the civic life of most societies both ancient and modern serving a variety of cultural and political purposes The use of drama and public spectacle as an instrument of civic social and religious activism has recently become the focus of renewed academic inquiry The essays in this interdisciplinary anthology provide carefully researched insights into the phenomenon of pageantry over the centuries and across broad cultural boundaries
