Genre for the Screenwriter Jule Selbo, 2014-07-25 Film Genre for the Screenwriter is a practical study of how classic film genre components can be used in the construction of a screenplay Based on Jule Selbo s popular course this accessible guide includes an examination of the historical origins of specific film genres how and why these genres are received and appreciated by film going audiences and how the student and professional screenwriter alike can use the knowledge of film genre components in the ideation and execution of a screenplay Explaining the defining elements characteristics and tropes of genres from romantic comedy to slasher horror and using examples from classic films like Casablanca alongside recent blockbuster franchises like Harry Potter Selbo offers a compelling and readable analysis of film genre in its written form The book also offers case studies talking points and exercises to make its content approachable and applicable to readers and writers across the creative field

Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions audition and corporeality This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy In this intervention the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo

Overkill Bill Mesce, Jr., 2014-08-21 The work examines the evolution of the thriller from the heyday of the Hollywood mogul era in the 1930s when it was primarily bottom of the bill fodder through its maturity in the World War II years and noir breeding 1950s its commercial and critical ascendancy in the 1960s and 1970s and finally its subsequent box office dominance in the age of the blockbuster
