From Hospital to Hospice Susie Vincent BSN RN CHPN, 2015-11-09. If you or a loved one is considering entering hospice care, please know that you are not alone. If you have cared for a loved one through their dying process, many of these stories will ring familiar. Contained within these pages is a collection of stories and experiences for terminally ill patients and their families, prayerfully written in hopes that they will provide comfort, strength, and blessing to you. What Do You See? Michelle Crowell, 2016-09-17. Oftentimes, documentation to prove hospice eligibility can be tricky. Generalization and lack of specific details can result in non-payment or repayment of claims. My purpose in creating this pocket guide is to help nurses, physicians, and other disciplines be able to accurately and thoroughly document hospice decline. Everything you need is at the drop of the hand in a small, convenient size guide that can easily be carried with you anywhere. Sharon S Harder, 2022-01-12. Face to Face Answers 2022 is the complete guide to mastering home health and hospice face-to-face F2F requirements. It provides a rundown of how face-to-face encounters have evolved as a regulatory mainstay for home health and hospice, with clarity around the rules as currently written. It also serves as a reference for agency teams detailing how the rules and interpretive guidance should be applied on a day-to-day basis to ensure compliance and retention of reimbursement for services provided. Home health regulatory expert Sharon Harder authors this must-have reference, which provides best practices and tools to ensure your agency is compliant with F2F rules. Despite numerous changes in the decade since face-to-face encounters were first introduced, this piece of the eligibility formula continues to be a source of confusion and a top reason of pre-claim rejections under the Review Choice Demonstration (RCD) and post-payment denials stemming from Additional Documentation Requests (ADRs). Get ahead of audits and prevent denials with Face to Face Answers 2022, which provides the following key information to help you master F2F requirements. Current state of home health and hospice face to face encounter requirements to ensure your following the most current rules Best practices for acquiring the encounter record and determining the patient s eligibility for services including a list of acceptable forms of encounter documentation Details on the relationship between the face to face and the initial plan of care A rundown of the billing requirements related to face to face encounters including the use of telehealth for face to face encounters Home health and hospice pre claim face to face review scenarios so you can prepare now to pass pre claim audits Steps to take when responding to ADRs what to do if claims get denied and how to navigate the appeals process Home health and hospice pre claim audit checklists A chapter devoted to hospice face to face requirements including details on hospice liability for untimely encounters the relationship between the face to face encounter and certification of terminal illness use of functional measures in hospice face to face encounters billing face to face visits and more
