Careers in Law Enforcement Coy H. Johnston, 2016-02-03 Careers in Law Enforcement is a valuable resource for students considering a career in the criminal justice field specifically in policing. Written in a concise and conversational tone, author Coy H. Johnston includes three main sections: planning a realistic path, selecting an appropriate career path in law enforcement, and preparing for the hiring process. The first chapter offers students a unique opportunity to take a personality career test to help them discover the types of jobs that might be a good fit. Consequently, students will set sensible goals at the beginning of their degree program and seek appropriate internships and volunteer opportunities. This text is a helpful resource; students will be able to peruse repeatedly when they are ready to start the process of applying for jobs within law enforcement.

The Police Chief Executive Report International Association of Chiefs of Police, Police Chief Executive Committee, 1976. This report proposes orderly methods of selecting a qualified police chief executive and of retaining him after selection. It also suggests means by which communities can increase the effectiveness of their police chief executives by ensuring the authority, resources, and tenure necessary to fulfill the responsibilities of the positions properly. In addition, this report sets out procedures grounded on American constitutional notions of fairness and due process for removing an unqualified police chief executive from office. The eighteen standards presented along with their related commentaries were developed and reviewed by the police chief executive committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), which, with funding support from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA), conducted a yearlong study into the role and position of police chief executives. The appendix contains a discussion of the research methodology, copies of the survey questionnaires, and statistical summaries of questionnaire responses. An index is provided.

Entry-level Reading and Writing Tests for California Law Enforcement Richard A. Honey, 1998. This study was undertaken to develop and validate reading and writing tests to be used for the selection of entry-level law enforcement officers in California. In effect, this study was comprised of two research projects: one resulting in a reading test and one resulting in a writing test The tests were validated using both the content and criterion related strategies of validation The tests were content validated using job skills as the criteria and empirically validated using academy academic performance as the criteria POST feels the language ability tests are appropriate for use as entry level selection procedures for all law eforcement agencies in the state of California     Report ,1911     Report Massachusetts.
