Lewis Esq.,2012-07-16 This book provides specific and practical ideas for using social media tools to enhance communications instruction and professional development within the K 12 school environment invaluable information for school librarians instructional coaches technology specialists and educational administrators Social Networking for Schools is the only book to take a comprehensive look at the topic of social media use in schools Starting with the numerous justifications for integrating social media into schools it provides real world examples of how to seamlessly integrate social media within your classroom or library examines the methodologies for crafting the necessary policies and procedures to ensure that staff members are prepared to use these tools effectively and discusses the policy and legal issues surrounding the use of social media in schools The work uniquely identifies the three core ways that social media can be integrated within a school as communications tools as instructional tools and for professional development The collaborative effort of a former school librarian and current school administrator with a practicing school attorney authors Steven M Baule and Julie E Lewis bring perspectives and critical insights to the topic not normally considered in similar literature

Storying a Reflexive Praxis for Pedagogy Ambika Gopal Raj,Sharon H. Ulanoff,2022-08-30 This volume conceptualizes and distinguishes storying from narrative and storytelling to establish itself as a method. It theorizes that storying pertains to one's identity to the unique positions of who one is how they came to be and why they came to be. Raj, 2019. Building upon foundational work from Freire, Greene, and Clandinin, Connolly, this book elucidates storying through a new concept emotional truth a deeply personal and authentic experience that builds a tangible connection from teller to listener. Such an involved conception of Storying could have the potential to anchor storying as research methodology and as valid pedagogical practice. Further the chapters in this book establish storying as a concept method and as pedagogical practice.
