Roman Private Law ...: Regal period Edwin Charles Clark, 1919     The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914) Mieke van der Linden, 2016-10-05 Over recent decades the responsibility for the past actions of the European colonial powers in relation to their former colonies has been subject to a lively debate In this book the question of the responsibility under international law of former colonial States is addressed Such a legal responsibility would presuppose the violation of the international law that was applicable at the time of colonization In the Scramble for Africa during the Age of New Imperialism 1870-1914 European States and non State actors mainly used cession and protectorate treaties to acquire territorial sovereignty imperium and property rights over land dominium The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in the context of the acquisition of territory and the expansion of empire mainly through extending sovereignty rights and subsequently intervening in the internal affairs of African political entities

Essays in

African Land Law Robert Home (College teacher), 2011     The Law of Nations in Global History C. H. Alexandrowicz, 2017-03-10 The history and theory of international law have been transformed in recent years by post colonial and post imperial critiques of the universalistic claims of Western international law The origins of those critiques lie in the often overlooked work of the remarkable Polish British lawyer historian C H Alexandrowicz 1902-75 This volume collects Alexandrowicz's shorter historical writings on subjects from the law of nations in pre colonial India to the New International Economic Order of the 1970s and presents them as a challenging portrait of early modern and modern world history seen through the lens of the law of nations The book includes the first complete bibliography of Alexandrowicz's writings and the first biographical and critical introduction to his life and works It reveals the formative influence of his Polish roots and early work on canon law for his later scholarship undertaken in Madras 1951-61 and Sydney 1961-67 and the development of his thought regarding sovereignty statehood self determination and legal personality among many other topics still of urgent interest to international lawyers political theorists and global historians
