

PERSONAL NARRATIVE

Prompts By Grades 1-4

1st Grade

- Where is someplace you have traveled to? Who did you go with? What did you do while you were there?
- How do you like to spend your weekends? Use details to describe what you like to do.

2nd Grade

- If you could plan dinner for your family, what would you serve? Why would you choose that meal?
- Imagine that you are taking a visit to the library. What types of books would you want to check out? Why?

3rd Grade

- Have you ever been a leader? When you were leading the group, what did you do? Did you enjoy being in a leadership position?
- What do you want to be when you grow up? Write about what it would be like to spend one day doing that job.

4th Grade

- Have you ever been surprised by your friends or family members? What did they do to surprise you? Did you like the feeling of being surprised?
- Imagine that you are now the fourth grade teacher for the day. What types of rules would you set for your classroom? What assignments would you give your students?

English Language Arts, Grade 12 Module 1 PCG Education, 2015-11-05 Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6-12 to educators across the country. Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences the standards require. Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research and write from sources and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible. A Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.
