The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani, Owen Seda, 2018-06-11

The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development

Supporting Multiculturalism and Gender Diversity in University Settings

Zhou, Molly Y., 2015-03-31 Despite modern technology and the focus on international business striving to make the world a smaller place many organizations still struggle with the need for diversity and multiculturalism This issue is also present in academia as women of color and those previously perceived to be in the ethnic minority continue the journey to become the educators and leaders that universities need Supporting Multiculturalism and Gender Diversity in University Settings examines the experiences of some of these female leaders and what they learned in their rise through education and academia Highlighting stories of feminism race and what it means to use these life lessons in the classroom this book is a valuable resource for higher education administrators policymakers and women professionals everywhere

Discrimination and Diversity: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications

Management Association, Information Resources, 2017-05-17 The growing presence of discrimination and isolation has caused negative changes to human interactions With the ubiquity of these practices there is now an increasingly urgent need to close this divide Discrimination and Diversity Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications provides a critical look at race gender and modern day discrimination and solutions to creating sustainable diversity across numerous contexts and fields Including innovative studies on anti discrimination measures gender discrimination and tolerance this multi volume book is an ideal source for professionals practitioners graduate students academics and researchers working in equality as well as managers and those in leadership roles

Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Integrating Predation Risk Across Scales: From Neurons to Ecosystems and Milliseconds to Generations

Jacqueline Jeannette Blundell,Evan Preisser,2020-06-04     UNESCO science report UNESCO,2015-11-09 There are fewer grounds today than in the past to deplore a North South divide in research and innovation This is one of the key findings of the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 A large number of countries are now incorporating science technology and innovation in their national development agenda in order to make their economies less reliant on raw materials and more rooted in knowledge Most research and development R D is taking place in high income countries but innovation of some kind is now occurring across the full spectrum of income levels according to the first survey of manufacturing companies in 65 countries conducted by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics and summarized in this report For many lower income countries sustainable development has become an integral part of their national development plans for the next 10 20 years Among higher income countries a firm commitment to sustainable development is often coupled with the desire to maintain competitiveness in global markets that are increasingly leaning towards green technologies The quest for clean energy and greater energy efficiency now figures among the research priorities of numerous countries Written by more than 50 experts who are each covering the country or region from which they hail the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 provides more country level information than ever before The trends and developments in science technology and innovation policy and governance between 2009 and mid 2015 described here provide essential baseline information on the concerns and priorities of countries that could orient the implementation and drive the assessment of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in the years to come

Pursuing Justice in Africa

Jessica Johnson,George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane,2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe

Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines. These include activism, land tenure, international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation. Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism, the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law, morality and rights. While the chapters are grounded in local experiences, they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice. The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest. Contributors: Felicitas Becker, Jonathon L Earle, Patrick Hoenig, Stacey Hynd, Fred Nyongesa, Ikanda Ngeyi, Ruth Kanyongolo, Anna Macdonald, Bernadette Malunga, Alan Msosa, Benson A Mulemi, Holly Porter, Duncan Scott, Olaf Zenker.
