WITWATERSRAND
JOHANNESBURG

The background of the cover is a photograph of a savanna landscape at sunset. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. The ground is dry and brown. In the foreground, there are several concentric, semi-transparent circles in shades of blue and purple. A large, dark silhouette of a tree is on the left side of the image.

Prospectus Of University Of Northwest For 2016:

Self-Tracking Btihaj Ajana, 2017-10-01 This book provides an empirical and philosophical investigation of self tracking practices In recent years there has been an explosion of apps and devices that enable the data capturing and monitoring of everyday activities behaviours and habits Encouraged by movements such as the Quantified Self a growing number of people are embracing this culture of quantification and tracking in the spirit of improving their health and wellbeing The aim of this book is to enhance understanding of this fast growing trend bringing together scholars who are working at the forefront of the critical study of self tracking practices Each chapter provides a different conceptual lens through which one can examine these practices while grounding the discussion in relevant empirical examples From phenomenology to discourse analysis from questions of identity privacy and agency to issues of surveillance and tracking at the workplace this edited collection takes on a wide and yet focused approach to the timely topic of self tracking It constitutes a useful companion for scholars students and everyday users interested in the Quantified Self phenomenon Exhibiting the Archive Peter

Lester, 2022-06-24 Exhibiting the Archive examines the role that exhibition plays in archives and analyses the impact they are understood to have on how users and visitors experience the archive Drawing on research conducted in Europe North America and Australia the book analyses the key theoretical and social influences on exhibition making in archives today and discusses the role of exhibitions in the archives of tomorrow This is the first in depth study to consider exhibition as more than outreach or advocacy it frames exhibition as an encounter with archives and with people and interprets it as a mechanism for change within the archive Against a backdrop of increasing digital activity Lester asks what experience within the physical space of the archive could be Drawing on ideas of spatiality and embodiment as well as social justice and activism Lester considers the role of exhibitions within the physical archive and the part they can play in reshaping how experience is understood to happen within it Exhibiting the Archive offers a new perspective on the archive that will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of archives and records The discussions of cutting edge practice offer new insights into how exhibitions are conceived and made and will therefore be of interest to practitioners around the world

Handbook on Green Infrastructure Danielle Sinnett, Nick Smith, Sarah Burgess, 2015-11-27 Green infrastructure encompasses many features in the built environment It is widely recognised as a valuable resource in our towns and cities and it is therefore crucial to understand create protect and manage this resource This Handbook sets the context for green infrastructure as a means to make urban environments more resilient sustainable liveable and equitable Including state of the art reviews that summarise the existing knowledge as well as research findings this Handbook provides current evidence for the beneficial impact of green infrastructure on health environmental quality and the economy It discusses the planning and design of green infrastructure as a strategic network down to the individual features in a neighbourhood and looks at the process of green infrastructure implementation emphasising the importance of collaboration across multiple professions and sectors This comprehensive volume operates at multiple spatial scales from strategic networks at the regional level to individual features in neighbourhoods with international case studies used throughout to illustrate key examples of good practice This collection of expert contributions will be invaluable to students and academics in the fields of planning urban studies and geography Practitioners and policy makers will also find the policy discussion and examples enlightening The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern,2023 This book is a wide ranging reference work covering the more than 550 Indigenous languages of Australia The chapters in the book explore typology and classification linguistic structures sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community The final part offers sketches of a selection of languages sub groups and families More Than a Feeling Adam J. Ramey,Jonathan D. Klingler,Gary E. Hollibaugh,2017-04-27 Whatever you think about the widening divide between Democrats and Republicans ideological differences do not explain why politicians from the same parties who share the same goals and policy preferences often argue fiercely about how best to attain them This perplexing misalignment suggests that we are missing an important piece of the puzzle Political scientists have increasingly drawn on the relationship between voters personalities and political orientation but there has been little empirically grounded research looking at how legislators personalities influence their performance on Capitol Hill With More Than a Feeling Adam J Ramey Jonathan D Klingler and Gary E Hollibaugh Jr have developed an innovative framework incorporating what are known as the Big Five dimensions of personality openness to experience conscientiousness extraversion agreeableness and neuroticism to improve our understanding of political behavior among members of Congress To determine how strongly individuals display these traits the authors identified correlates across a wealth of data including speeches campaign contributions and expenditures committee involvement willingness to filibuster and even Twitter feeds They then show how we might expect to see the influence of these traits across all aspects of Congress members political behavior from the type and quantity of legislation they sponsor and their style of communication to whether they decide to run again or seek a higher office They also argue convincingly that the types of personalities that have come to dominate Capitol Hill in recent years may be contributing to a lot of the gridlock and frustration plaguing the American political system Unbound Heather Boushey,2019-10-15 A Financial Times Book of the Year The strongest documentation I have seen for the many ways in which inequality is harmful to economic growth Jason Furman A timely and very useful guide Boushey assimilates a great deal of recent economic research and argues that it amounts to a paradigm shift New Yorker Do we have to choose between equality and prosperity Decisions made over the past fifty years have created underlying fragilities in our society that make our economy less effective in good times and less resilient to shocks such as today s coronavirus pandemic Many think tackling inequality would require such heavy handed interference that it would stifle economic growth But a careful look at the data suggests nothing could be further from the truth and that reducing inequality is in fact key to delivering future prosperity Presenting cutting edge economics with verve

Heather Boushey shows how rising inequality is a drain on talent ideas and innovation leading to a concentration of capital and a damaging under investment in schools infrastructure and other public goods We know inequality is fueling social unrest Boushey shows persuasively that it is also a serious drag on growth In this outstanding book Heather Boushey shows that beyond a point inequality damages the economy by limiting the quantity and quality of human capital and skills blocking access to opportunity underfunding public services facilitating predatory rent seeking weakening aggregate demand and increasing reliance on unsustainable credit Martin Wolf Financial Times Think rising levels of inequality are just an inevitable outcome of our market driven economy Then you should read Boushey s well argued well documented explanation of why you re wrong David Rotman MIT Technology Review

Exhibitions for Social Justice Elena Gonzales,2019-07-17 Exhibitions for Social Justice assesses the state of curatorial work for social justice in the Americas and Europe today Analyzing best practices and new curatorial work to support all those working on exhibitions Gonzales expounds curatorial practices that lie at the nexus of contemporary museology and neurology From sharing authority to inspiring action and building solidarity the book demonstrates how curators can make the most of visitors physical and mental experience of exhibitions Drawing on ethnographic and archival work at over twenty institutions with nearly eighty museum professionals as well as scholarship in the public humanities visual culture cultural studies memory studies and brain science this project steps back from the detailed institutional histories of how exhibitions come to be Instead it builds a set of curatorial practices by examining the work behind the finished product in the gallery Demonstrating that museums have the power to help our society become more hospitable equitable and sustainable Exhibitions for Social Justice will be of interest to scholars and students of museum and heritage studies gallery studies arts and heritage management and politics It will also be valuable reading for museum professionals and anyone else working with exhibitions who is looking for guidance on how to ensure their work attains maximum impact
