Blueprint Myth Retelling Novel:

Popular Culture in South Asian Context Akshaya Kumar, Raj Thakur, 2025-11-10 The volume examines popular sensibilities via textual visual performative spatial digital frames of inquiry and critical social political issues in South Asia. It highlights the interface between cultural studies and its popular political standpoints and interrogates the kaleidoscope of popular imaginary as well as its conceptual problematics through distinct case studies from the region. It leads learners towards the unfounded territories of popular culture studies in South Asia. With chapters by major scholars in the field the book uses theoretically comprehensive and empirically varied case studies to re evaluate the central questions of epistemology methodology and approaches to popular culture studies from non Western cultures perspectives. Lucid accessible and nuanced the chapters in the volume will be an invaluable reference source for scholars researchers and students in the humanities liberal arts cultural studies and South Asian studies

Literature and the Bible David Bevan, 2023-12-18 War, Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson Katherine Cooper, 2020-04-16 The novels of Storm Jameson and their depictions of Britain's relationship to Europe around the Second World War represent a crucial departure from the work of her contemporaries. As the first female President of English PEN Jameson led her country's wartime literary community through turbulent times in history by focusing on European rather than pointedly British experiences of war. War Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson is a timely critique situated within the historical and theoretical contexts so fundamental to understanding her work. Presenting previously unpublished archival material that documents her work as an ambassador for British writers during a time of national upheaval Katherine Cooper reveals how the novelist's pacifism and evolving attitudes to war and peace were underpinned by her overarching vision for the post war world. Drawing comparisons to the works of Virginia Woolf Arthur Koestler Graham Greene and others this study shows how Jameson's novels gesture towards prevalent internationalist perspectives and reshapes how we view the literary history of the period

Publishers Weekly, 1978 Writing South Africa Derek Attridge, Rosemary Jolly, 1998-01-22 During the final years of the apartheid era and the subsequent transition to democracy South African literary writing caught the world's attention as never before. Writers responded to the changing political situation and its daily impact on the country's inhabitants with works that recorded or satirised state enforced racism explored the possibilities of resistance and rebuilding and creatively addressed the vexed question of literature's relation to politics and ethics. Writing South Africa offers a window on the literary activity of this extraordinary period that conveys its range going well beyond a handful of world renowned names and its significance for anyone interested in the impact of decolonisation and democratisation on the cultural sphere. It brings together for the first time discussions by some of the most distinguished South African novelists, poets and dramatists with those of leading commentators based in South Africa, Britain and North America. The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1992
